

Wonder land

By Lia

Elizabeth Stublefield, a 13 year old curious, and courageous little girl, went on a walk in the middle of the night. In the middle of the forest she saw red roses, buzzing bees, and a door.... "A door in the middle of the forest, in the middle of the night, not possible!" she thought in her head. She was as brave as a lion. She swiftly opened the door. There were horses as small as bees and bees as big as horses. Then she turned around and saw that the door she had come through was gone.

She kind freaked out, but was also beyond amazed by the sight of the new world. She just kept on walking and the more she walked the more she could see! She felt like she was walking on a road of gems, the ground was as shiny as a freshly polished diamond. There was a crystal castle and a little road to get to it. She followed the path till she arrived at the castle gate. It sparkled like a million sapphires.

She heard something behind her and spun around. There in front of her was a little girl. Elizabeth asked what her name was and she said, "My name is Anabel are you lost here too?"

Elizabeth said "Yes, but we can find a way out together"

Anabel said "ok".

Anabel tried to follow Elizabeth through the gate but Elizabeth said, "You need to stay here" and opened the door to the castle. She looked around and saw a big gown with gold trim that smelled of roses. The person in the gown in front of her said,

"What are you doing in my castle?" Elizabeth said that she was just looking for a way out of this land for me and Anabel. And when the girl heard that, she covered her gem over her neck.

One of the maids in the castle looked at her suspiciously and said, "The gem the queen is wearing is the key out of this land. To get it you must have a better gift than what she is wearing on her neck." Then Elizabeth dashed out of the castle as fast as her legs could take her so she could find a better gift than that gem.

She ran into Anabel and Anabel said "did you find a way out of here? "

Elizabeth said," Yes, I did find a way out but we just need to find a better gift than the queen's gem on her neck." Anabel helped Elizabeth try to find the perfect gift. They found one gift a diamond necklaces trimmed with gold. They decided that that is the perfected gift and ran to the castle to find the maid and showed her the necklaces.

She showed the necklace to the queen and the queen switched gifts and Anabel and Elizabeth said the magic words ,"inside out wonderland bring me back home" And they were back home in there soft beds with a rock in their hands it was a gift was a gift from the queen and the two girls slowly feel asleep. 500 years later a girl named July found the door and the story as you know it started again.....
